 ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Kearney Towing, Inc.'s Motion for Leave to Add a Third-Party, Motion to Compel, and Motion for a Protective Order. A hearing was held with Kyle Farrar attending by telephone for Plaintiffs and Kristina Kamler attending on behalf of Defendant. Having heard the arguments of the Parties, I find, and order as follows:

1. Defendant's Motion for Leave is granted. Defendant will file the Third-Party Complaint against Goodyear in the next 10 days.
2. With regards to Defendant's Motion to Compel:
 - a. Plaintiff, Jacob Summers is ordered to sign a Certificate of Accuracy, verifying the truthfulness of his discovery responses and produce a signed authorization for Defendant to obtain his medical records.
 - b. Shane Loveland and Jacob Summers are compelled to supplement their discovery responses to disclose:
 - i. any felony charges filed against them or any criminal complaints filed against them alleging crimes of dishonesty within the preceding 10 years
 - ii. any civil lawsuits involving personal injuries or guardianship proceedings.
 - c. Defendant's Motion to Compel materials concerning materials labelled as confidential and protected by a Protective Order in the case titled Susman, et. al. v.

CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
 BUFFALO COUNTY, NE

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, U.S. District Court for Nebraska, Case No. CI 8:18-CV-00127 (hereinafter the “Goodyear” case) is stayed pending the addition of Goodyear as a party to this case.

- d. Any portion of Defendant’s Motion to Compel that is not addressed above, has been resolved via a mutual agreement of the Parties and, therefore, is denied.
3. Defendant’s Motion for a Protective Order seeking to prevent its representatives from being subject to duplicative depositions as between this case and the Goodyear case is denied.
4. Defendant’s Motion for a Protective Order concerning materials labelled as confidential and protected by a Protective Order in the Goodyear case is denied.

It is so Ordered.
